The resolution which had been proposed at the last meeting by Mrs. Anderson and seconded by Miss McConnell relative to the issuing of a circular letter to non-members whose names are on the Invitation Lists was passed unanimously and it was agreed that the Invitation Lists should be cancelled.

It was announced that Mr. Lilley had agreed to lecture on "Methods employed in the education of the Deaf & Dumb" on 19th., February, 1930. The names of Miss Matier, Miss Purvis or J.A.H. The Secretary announced that 12th., March would be a convenient date for Mr. Deane's lecture. As Chairman for this meeting the following names were suggested:- Mr. Hunter, Mr. Welply or Mr. Munro, K.C.

Mrs. Patrick said that she had asked Mrs. Dermot O'Brien of Dublin if she could suggest a Lecturer on Italian Art, but that owing to Mrs. Dermot O'Brien's illness no definite arrangement could be made at the moment. Mrs. Patrick hoped however, to have some more information for the Committee at their next meeting.

A letter was read from Mrs. RRP. Wilson putting forward the suggestion that drawing-room meetings should occasionally be held. The suggestion was approved and it was decided to try to arrange a drawing-room meeting during the week commencing Monday, 24th., March, 1930. Mrs. Wilson thought that a paper should be read followed by a general discussion, and Mrs. Hume mentioned that a Mrs. Olesen might be prepared to read a paper on "Child Psychology". It was decided to keep the secretaries of the Irish Branches informed of our programme of Lectures and to extend a cordial invitation to their members.

Mrs. Patrick read a letter from Mrs. Dermot O'Brien intimating that a Miss Johnston, whom she described as a very good speaker, would be in Ireland in October next lecturing on "Elocution and the Art of Public Speaking Generally". COMMITTEE MEETING.
15th., October, 1931.

A Committee Meeting was held on Thursday, 15th., October, 1931, at 2, Queens Elms, Belfast.

The following were present:- Mrs. Irwin (Vice-President) (in the Chair) Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. Johnstone and Miss McConnell.

Apologies were received from:- Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Hume, Mrs. Megaw, Miss Russell, Lady Livingstone and Mrs. Newton Anderson.

The Minutes of the Committee Meeting held on 28th., November, 1930, and of the Special Emergency Committee held on 6th., May, 1931, were read, confirmed and signed.

Arising out of the Minutes it was reported that it had been found impossible owing to the difficulties in arranging for Speakers, Chairmen and dates so far ahead, to make any definite move in the direction of a Programme of Lectures for the whole Session viz., October-May.

An estimate for the printing of a small programme was submitted from Messrs Magowan and Ingram who were prepared to print a simple folder programme for the cost of 25/-s per 200 copies but in view of the foregoing it was considered unnecessary to do anything further in the matter at present.

It was also reported that Miss R.A. Pennethorne kindly cancelled some engagements in England in order to come over to address the meetings held in Greysteel and Limavady at the invitation of Mrs W. Cousins of Limavady.

As a result of this visit a few new members joined the Branch and a Public Elementary School in Limavady (under the Regional Education Committee) has decided to work the Junior classes on the P.N.E.U. Programmes.

Miss Pennethorne would only accept her travelling expenses which came to £5.3.9., and not the sum of £6/6/- which this Committee authorised the Treasurer to pay her.

A discussion then took place about the next meeting and it was decided to hold a meeting on Wednesday, 4th., November, 1931 at 3 p.m., in the Grand Central Hotel, Belfast and that the Secretary should ask Mrs. Moore to approach The Rt. Hon. H.M. Pollock, M.P., Minister of Finance with a view to his speaking at this meeting on "The Gold Standard".

Failing this Mrs. Patrick would ask Mrs. Waring, M.P., to speak on some topical subject.

It was decided to ask Mr. Geoffrey Garrod to act as Chairman at this Meeting and failing him, Mrs. Clarendon.

This concluded the business.

Committee Meeting

Sept 29th 1933.

A Committee meeting was held on Sept 29th at 2, Queen's Arms, Belfast.

The following were present:- The President (Mr. R.P. Wilson) in the Chair, Mr. Johnstone (Vice-president) Mr. Chamberlain and the Secretary (Mrs. Swan)

This meeting dealt almost entirely with plans and suggestions to be raised at the Annual General Meeting to be held in January, 1934.

Owing to the poor attendance of Committee members at Committee meetings, it was decided that letters should be sent to those who have failed to attend for some time asking them whether or not they intended to take an active part on the Committee.

It was urged that the small attendances at the ordinary meetings did not justify the Committee in taking a Hall or providing a speaker at considerable cost, and owing to the fact that so few members reply to the invitations sent out that meetings held in private houses would greatly inconvenience the hostess who would be at a loss to know how many members to expect.

A letter from the Head Office was read. This put forward the suggestion that meetings held in Provincial Towns might give new life to the Branch and cater for members who lived at some distance from Belfast and are often unable to attend the meetings as at present arranged.

With regard to the Library it was arranged that Miss Williams would act as librarian at 2, Queen's Edms where the books would be obtainable and where she would be in attendance on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday of each week at 3.45 p.m. Notices to this effect were to be printed on programmes of lectures sent out to members.

This concluded the Business.

Social Meeting. 4th Feb. 1937.

A Social Meeting was held on 4th Feb. 1937, in the Carlton Restaurant, Belfast, by the invitation of Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Irwin, and Mrs. Johnstone, as an outcome of a circular letter sent to members of committee for their views on the advisability of closing down the Branch.

Apologies for non-attendance were read from Mrs. Acheson, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Greaves, Miss Jordan, Mrs. Corhey, Mrs. Patrick Webb, Mrs. Cochrane, Mrs. Heyland, Mrs. Canth, and Mrs. Norman Patrick.

The objects of the meeting were set out by Mrs. Wilson, the President, in the following remarks:-

"As you know, we have met today to discuss the future of the N. Ireland Branch of the P.N.E.U. At present, the Branch is in a state of suspended animation, & the question is - what are we going to do about it? Shall we let it die altogether, or, shall we attempt to revive it? And if so, in what form?"

Perhaps before I invite discussion, it would be well for you me to say a word on how the matter looks to the committee, the Vice-presidents and myself.

Actually

Actually I feel Mrs. Johnstone should be in the Chair today, for it is owing to her that this meeting was arranged; & her and to Mr. Bing of Rochport, who I hope will give us his views later.

During the winter of 1934, in which I first took over the Presidency, every effort was made to get interesting speakers. We printed programmes sent out notices, but time and again we were faced with pathetic audiences of ten or twelve! The following winter we tried once more but with even worse results. Finally, tired and ashamed of apologising to lecturers for their scanty audiences, we resolved to stop the painful farce, & let the whole thing lapse for a time.

Mrs. Irwin & I flung ourselves into work for the P.N.E.U. School at Milford, Co. Anagh, & tried to forget our disheartening experiences in Belfast. Now that the school is becoming established however, we feel that the fate of the Branch should be settled one way or the other. Therefore, after consultation with the rest of the Committee, we decided to ask you to meet us here today.

Several members stated that they would regret the winding up of the Branch and it was unanimously decided to continue to have our Annual Social Meeting, & to fix, pro tem, a reduced annual subscription of 2/6d. ~~per~~

After tea a short address was given by Mrs. Shelley, the Headmistress of the P.N.E.U. School at Milford, on the curriculum and aims of the school.

This concluded the meeting.

x No committee was elected but Mrs. Wilson was asked to continue as President and Mrs. J.B. Johnstone to act as Hon. Secretary pro tem.

particulars of the outstanding balance due to the Branch which had not been handed over to the new Hon. Secretary.
